

Chorus

The lost child
that nobody loved
got tossed away by his family got sold off
for a single buck!
(x2)

Once upon a time
there was a little town his little family was poor his name was little boy George

he had to work for his family
to keep them all fed
and on their feet

(con la melo del chorus)

but for the family
it wasn't enough
because they owed money and we're bankrupt

they stole and robbed for many other people
but it wasn't enough

Little boy George had tears in his eyes cause he was told by his family were selling you for a buck

The lost child
that nobody loved
got tossed away by his family
got sold off
for a single buck!
(x2)

poor little George
poor little George x2
poor little George
poor little George

The lost child
that nobody loved
got tossed away by his family
got sold off
for a single buck!
(x2)
